The Jewish leaders, like every unrepentant sinner, will not take responsibility for their actions. Unless the sinner recognizes their fallenness, they will not seek God and will die in their sins. This is what Jesus meant when He said, in Matthew 9:13, that He did not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance. A person can't repent of sin if they don't think they are sinning. Day 5 (Acts 5:40-42)

Pray God open your heart and understanding to what He would have you learn today from His Word.
Read Acts 5 out loud and complete the following verses and questions.

40 After they called in the apostles and had them flogged, they ordered them not to speak in the name of Jesus and released them. 41 Then they went out from the presence of the Sanhedrin, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to be treated shamefully on behalf of the Name. 42 Every day in the temple, and in various homes, they continued teaching and proclaiming the good news that Jesus is the Messiah.

- Then they _____ out from the presence of the Sanhedrin, _____ that they were counted worthy to _____ treated shamefully on _____ - of the Name.
- Questions:
 - The apostles went out from the presence of who? _____
 - What did the apostles rejoice in?

Notice the difference in these men. They are the same ones that fled and abandoned Jesus as well as denying association with Him on the night of His crucifixion. Their belief is secure now and have the resident Holy Spirit within them. They are rejoicing because their faith endured in the midst of the persecution. All of us experience persecution at some level where we are faced with the choice of whether to identify with Christ or not. It may bring unfair treatment or assigned motives that are untrue. It could mean being “canceled” or ridiculed. It could even be loss of relationship or position in life. We must be sure of why we believe that Jesus is the Son of God and our faith in His death upon the cross for our sins. Then, and only then, will His Word not be to us a “list of rules”, but an act of love.

- Write out James 1:2-3:

Note: notice here that they are teaching in both the temple and in various homes. Again, this is the beginning of the church.
