

Acts 3 Study Guide

Review:

Acts 1: Jesus Christ (in His resurrected body) spends more 40 days teaching, showing proofs of His resurrection, and giving direction of “next steps” for the church to be built. (Verses 1-8). Verses 9-11 detail Jesus’ ascension into heaven and angels describe how He will return a 2nd time. Jesus’ followers gather in the Upper Room and proceed to fill Judas’ position with Matthias as well as explaining what happened to Judas.

Acts 2: (Verses 1-41) At Pentecost (50 days after Passover and Jesus’ crucifixion; 10 days after Jesus bodily ascended), all were still gathered together waiting for what Jesus promised. Devout Jews came from all over to Jerusalem for Pentecost (also known Feast of Weeks/Booths). These devout Jews witnessed a sign of flames of tongues visually over Jesus’ followers (came like a wind noise) that enabled them to declare God’s mighty deeds in their own native language (up until this point, was only heard in Hebrew and Aramaic. Peter stands up (most likely from prayer position with others) and explains, through Old Testament prophecy, what they are seeing. Peter then shows how they killed their Messiah by crucifying Jesus. They are convicted and ask what to do. Peter tells them to “repent and be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.” Peter tells them this is for everyone who does that in order to become God’s child. 3,000 souls are added. Verses 42-47, we learn of the church beginnings as they continued to devote themselves to the apostles teaching (which will become our New Testament), to fellowship, to breaking of bread and to prayer. The church begins to take care of each other as they have need and the Lord adds to their number.

Why do you stare at us, as though we had made him walk by our own power or godliness?" 13 The God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, the God of our ancestors, has glorified his servant Jesus, whom you handed over and denied before Pilate, though he had decided to release him. 14 You denied the Holy and Righteous One and asked to have a murderer released to you. 15 You killed the source of life, whom God raised from the dead; we are witnesses of this.

Note: Solomon's Colonnade was the porch surrounding the court of the Gentiles. In the book of 1 Kings, it's recorded when Solomon built the Lord's temple (and was referred to in writings as "Solomon's Temple". This temple was destroyed by Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon Empire, in his 3rd siege of Jerusalem. It was later rebuilt when God returned Israel to the land after their captivity (recorded in Ezra, Nehemiah, Haggai and Zechariah). The 2nd temple is the one that Jesus came to and this porch/colonnade was where He taught John 10. This was most likely a covered porch to protect from weather as they entered the temple. Many people would've gathered here. This miracle would've drawn more crowds for the sermon that God would preach through Peter. This is the 2nd major sermon in the book of Acts and this is the purpose - to gather a crowd for this sermon after witnessing the power of God through this physical healing.

Note: “Why did Luke choose to chronicle this particular miracle? The answer is two-fold: 1) because it was an occasion for a second sermon of Peter’s, which Luke wants us to hear; and 2) because the miracle and the sermon were the cause of the first persecution of the church.” (Boice, James Montgomery, Acts: an Expository Commentary, Baker Books, 1997, p. 64). We will see persecution of Jesus’ followers from this point forward.
